Georgia Alumni Association of Historically Black State Universities 32nd Annual Legislative Conference January 24 - 27, 2017

THEME
"Envisioning Our Future, Embracing
Our Legacy, and Expanding our Horizon"

Ramada Plaza Hotel
450 Capitol Avenue SE
Atlanta, Georgia

The 32nd Annual GAAHBSU (Georgia Alumni Association of Historically Black State Universities) Legislative Conference will be held on January 24 - 26, 2017, at the Ramada Plaza Atlanta Capital Park Hotel (Downtown Atlanta). GAAHBSU is a consortium of the National Alumni Associations of Albany State University, Fort Valley State University, and Savannah State University. It is organized to advance their missions and to help ensure the futures of these historically significant institutions. The legislative conference provides a forum for alumni and officials of Georgia's Historically Black Public Universities to dialogue with elected officials and key state leaders to address the universities' common goals and concerns.

The theme for this year's conference is "Envisioning Our Future, Embracing Our Legacy, and Expanding our Horizon". During this conference, we will examine old frameworks for alumni engagement and explore strategies for creating new frameworks. We will receive an update on the post-ASU/Darton College consolidation and discuss strategic issues that face our HBCUs.

Fort Valley State University National Alumni Association, Inc. is the host Association for GAAHBSU 2017. Melvin Smith, Vice-President of FVSU NAA, Inc. is the Chair of the 2017 GAAHBSU Conference.

Please join us for a captivating conference. It is an exciting time for our Associations to continue to meet and exceed expectations that are intrinsic to the principles under which we were founded. This conference brings inspired people together in forums like this to ensure our Universities and Associations remain relevant.
